Travel Daily

Tuesday 24th April 2018

AWARD-WINNING Travellers Choice members toured Southern Italy in style this month on a seven-night Back-Roads Touring educational that took in the cuisine, art and architecture of Naples, the Amalfi Coast & Capri.

Highlights included the marble temples of Paestum, iconic Pompeii and the Royal Palace of Caserta. But the agents - all winners of the national travel network's coveted Silver Choice Awards - also had a chance to taste Southern Italy's true flavour, learning how to roll ravioli, tasting Falanghina wine and sipping limoncello in lemon groves.

Travellers Choice GM marketing Robyn Mitchell said the group also tried their hand at ceramics in Minori, and in the process helped to save a local hero.

"Donkeys were once used for transport all along the Amalfi Coast but they are slowly being replaced and there is a campaign to save them," said Mitchell. "We each SILVER Choice winners shine in Naples, back row: John Hancock, City Beach Travel & Cruise; Mike O'Leary, Endeavour Travel & Cruise; Greg Close, Easy Travel and Cruise; Anni Baillieu, Moss Vale Cruise & Travel; Dennis Basham, Back-Roads Touring; and Robyn Mitchell, Travellers Choice. Front row: Jim Cooper, Queanbeyan City Travel & Cruise; Carol Evans, Bay Travel & Cruise; Sue Holmes, Carine Travel Bug; Michele Perrone, Travel Makers; Natalie Lauderdale, Capricorn Travel; and Nancy Sinopoli, Travel House Group.

designed a clay donkey face and all of the faces will now be part of an installation to raise awareness and raise money for the cause."

Each year 30 Travellers Choice members are recognised with Gold, Silver or Bronze Choice Awards, with winners determined by the level of support they provide the network's preferred suppliers.

For more info see travellerschoice.com.

Natalie Lauderdale at the Royal Palace of Caserta, the last great creation of the Italian Baroque.

JOHN Hancock puts the finishing touches on his ceramic
'capolavoro'

JIM Cooper shows off his Campania cooking skills.

AT THE UNESCO World Heritage-listed site of Paestum.

